

2019 Racquetball Annual Awards Ballot

Please Return all ballots to INSRAracquetball@gmail.com before May 30th, 2019

OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTOR:

The "Outstanding Contributor" award should go to any individual, regardless of demographic, attributes that has given heart and soul to Racquetball. This award is not restricted to actual players of the game. It can be any supporter of Racquetball that has made a significant sacrifice and contribution to the sport. "Outstanding Contributor" is not simply a financial or service donation. To be the "Outstanding Contributor" the individual should have exhibited unconditional giving, sincere concern for Indiana Racquetball, and have sacrificed or exerted their time, efforts, money, knowledge, sweat, and heart!

HALL OF FAME:

Awarded to men and women over the age of 35 who have positively impacted amateur racquetball in the state of Indiana by a combination of achievement through play and contribution to the sport as an act of character. Financial support may be a consideration in part but may not be the only factor for consideration. As a player, the nominee must have achieved a high level of accomplishment over a period of no less than 10 years if still playing at the State, Regional, and National level. As a contributor the nominee should exert leadership character through teaching, coaching, innovations, administration, or representation or promotion of the game.
